From The East

Brethren,

The Holiday Seasons approach as it is already November. Covid-19 took much from all of us in 2020 and 2021. However, we should also be thankful for the many blessings as we will gather to celebrate the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. May your Thanksgiving be bountiful and Christmas be merry and bright.

2021 was a difficult year for us all. For the first half of the year Zoom meetings were a challenge. Finally, in July we had our first live Stated Meeting in 18 months. It was wonderful to meet our Brethren in person after such a long separation. After nearly two years, we also welcomed a New Brother to San Leandro Lodge. The Officers delivered a memorable and meaningful Entered Apprentice Degree to Mr. Arnold Sicam whom we now refer to as Brother. Welcome to the Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity Brother Sicam.

To the Brethren who attended the Grand Lodge of California 172nd Annual Communication, I give you my thanks for supporting our Lodge. Several items of Legislation were passed. Legislation that we as Masons voted on can be found on the Grand Lodge website, freemason.org under the 2021 Legislation.

As another Masonic year comes to a close, this month we chose the new leadership to lead the Lodge for the ensuing Masonic year 2022. On our November Stated meeting, I encourage all Master Masons in good standing to attend as we fulfill our Masonic Obligation to vote in the New Officers. Ensure you bring your dues card; the Tiler will be checking as only Master Masons in good standing have the privilege to vote.

On behalf of my loving wife Sister Elsa, we wish you a bountiful Thanksgiving.

Attire for the November Stated meeting is Coat and tie.

Fraternally,
William Eadus
Worshipful Master
