Greetings Brethren,

It is hoped everyone had an enjoyable June and July. Normally, we enjoy our outing to Coloma for camping and fellowship. Due to COVID-19, nearly all events for the year are postponed.

The Leadership of the Grand lodge had each Division set up Masonic Family Unity get-togethers. Division 3 enjoyed a BBQ held in the parking lot of Orinda Lodge No. 122. It was well attended with several singers and plenty of food for us to enjoy. In attendance were: Grand Master - The Most Worshipful Arthur Weiss; Deputy Grand Master - The Right Worshipful Jeffery Wilkins; our AGL Worshipful Tony Cimarra; as well as many GL Officers, many Past Masters, and several current Masters. Our Rainbow Girls of San Leandro Lodge were also in attendance with several of their Leadership.

Finally, after fifteen months, we were able to meet in the Lodge for a face-to-face Stated Meeting. Everyone was a little rusty, including yours truly. It went well. For our first in-person Stated Meeting of the year, we had our official visit with Worshipful Tom Kavishi, PM, HA, Inspector of the 319th District. We balloted on the membership in San Leandro Lodge 113 of Mr. Arnold C. Sicam, and the vote was unanimous! His First Degree will be scheduled at a later date. We balloted for affiliation of Brother Eduardo A. Pasilio from Menlo Park Lodge No. 651, also unanimous.

COVID-19 is not finished with us yet. Several variations are spreading worldwide. Please use precautions to keep yourself and your family safe.

Fraternally yours,
William Eadus
Worshipful Master

Hello my Brothers and Sisters,

The first in-person Stated Meeting, after the virus hit, is now over. Everything went pretty good. A lot of things have been forgotten, and in time we will remember them again. All in all, things went well. We have met with our Brothers and Sisters, of whom we have not seen in a long time, which was good. We needed that.

CMC

405.020 GRAND MASTER'S REPRESENTATIVE.

In the performance of his duties, the Inspector shall be the Representative of the Grand Master in his district. On his OFFICIAL VISIT to a tiled Lodge, he shall be received with Grand Honors. [Source: Section 4020 of the 1991 California Masonic Code].

If it is an Official visit, then there are, Masonic Traditions and/or Protocols that MUST be followed "That no one speaks after the inspector." The Master will then continue to close the Lodge.

Thank you again for taking the time to read this. I hope it is still interesting. It was nice to see everyone in the Lodge again. Stay safe and God Bless.

Bill Warner Sr.

Senior Warden

Hello Brethren,

It is already August and we are reminding some of the brethren that have not paid their San Leandro Lodge 113 Dues. The Grand Lodge has already closed its fiscal year and the per capita will be sent out soon. By direction of the Grand Lodge of California, all members who have not paid their dues, will receive a Notice of Delinquent Dues.

If you are having difficulty paying your dues, please contact me or the Worshipful Master. However, if you are able to pay, you can log in with the Grand Lodge iMember 2.0 to see how much your dues are and make your payment online.

In regards to the Grand Lodge's 172nd Annual Communication, which will occur on October 8th to the 10th, registration is now open online. Please visit the Grand Lodge of California's website at <https://freemason.org/anncomm21/> to register.

Fraternally yours,

Norman R. Mallillin PM

Secretary
